

August 2013

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
				1 Sing a song about the end of summer.	2 Count how many windows in your house. How many doors.	3 Teach a grown up what you know about your favorite game.
4 Read the comics with a grown up.	5 Have a play date with a friend, grandparent, aunt or uncle.	6 Cut coupons to save money at the grocery store.	7 Help pack your own lunch or snack.	8 Help with outside work, watering or pick up outside.	9 Do a puzzle or two. Time yourself for how fast you can do it.	10 Use dry beans to glue on to your initials in oaktag. Use your pincers
11 Draw a picture of things that begin with the letter A...apple, artist, ant...???	12 Read all the signs you can on your next car ride.	13 Practice tying your shoes, and if you know that, learn a double knot.	14 Help push the grocery cart. Help unload it and help bring bags into your house.	15 Strut like a rooster. Run like a cheetah, trot like a horse, Squawk like a chicken!	16 Help wash windows with a grown up.	17 Make a line with masking tape about 2 inches from a wall. Try to land a coin on it.
18 Draw a picture of your favorite foods at Thanksgiving.	19 Put your clean clothes in your drawers or bureau	20 Make a card and send it to someone you love.	21 Get a book at the library about the first Thanksgiving	22 Help set the table and then bring your dishes to the sink.	23 As a grown up about what Black Friday is.	24 Listen to music and just relax. Wrap yourself in a blanket
25 Sort some coins into 4 different bowls.	26 Try something made with pumpkin. Pie, seeds, soup?	27 Watch an old fashioned movie with some yummy popcorn.	28 Ask if you can do a chore to help out at your house.	29 Help make a salad. Use a plastic knife to cut veggies.	30 Play some marbles. Aim at target like a small box or tennis ball	31 See how many licks it takes to eat an ice cream cone!